In order to share knowledge of the escape lines and their history to a wider audience:

- Any submissions, or parts of submissions, to this competition may be shared with members of ELMS in our Newsletters, and on the members' page of our Facebook site.
- Any submissions, or parts of submissions, to this competition may be shared on the ELMS website or ELMS public Facebook site.

Only first names would be disclosed, and permission to publish would be sought first – in order to protect the identity of minors.

All other details submitted with your entry will remain confidential within the ELMS management, unless the entrant/s wish for personal or school publicity.

REMEMBER: A simple written presentation will hold as much value as a 'flashy' presentation reliant on technology. The quality of your research and understanding and how you convey it to others is paramount. Age is not a barrier [but 18 yrs. and under].
